Competency C Promoting Advocacy with the Individual

How can you, as a direct support professional, empower John to:

Live a life that he values as defined by his Personal Outcome Measures (POMs) and not the personal values of the staff?

Have more opportunities for desired community involvement?

Think and problem solve; help him to figure out what he wants to do?

Have increased self-esteem through positive interactions focusing on his abilities and not his disabilities?

Learn new skills that increase his independence and decrease his dependence on staff?
