REGIONAL CENTERS FOR WORKFORCE TRANSFORMATION

BUILDING THE SKILLS FOR BUILDING AND MAINTAINING POSITIVE RELATIONSHIPS

Presenters:

Asheley Blaise &
Tish Comstock- Allcorn

Asheley Blaise has worked in the field of IDD for over 12 years, experienced in providing a safe and challenging environment for people with Intellectual Disabilities. She continues to be driven by the intricate staffing and leadership needs of the field.

Tish Comstock- Allcorn has worked with the Regional Centers from the very start as a Self- Advocate Lead. She is a dedicated and passionate self advocate, and has lobbied many times at the capital for DSPs to get better wages and a career ladder.

Join the Regional Centers for Workforce Transformation for this free workshop. Welcome to the second workshop in the Building the Skills Series. Every month we will be covering one of the Core Competencies. This month, we will delve into intricacies, as well as the complexities in "Building and Maintaining Positive Relationships." This workshop is intended for Frontline Supervisors (those who directly supervise Direct Support Professionals), but is open to everyone who wishes to be a part of the journey. We look forward to seeing you all as we explore the core of every relationship in the lives of people being supported.
